FOR BUSINIES MIN.

On Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, classes will be held for professional and business men from 6.30 P. M. to 7.30 P. M., when the exercises will consist of dumb bell, bar bell, Indian club, and wand drills. Instead of the exercises on heavy apparatus, that were introduced last winter, Professor Schatzel will pay more attention to calisthenies, corrective exercises, and systematic training. On the other three evenings at the same hour he will give instruction to the same classes in fencing and weesting. These classes will also be divided into elementary and intermediate courses.

The boys classes will be held Mondays and Wednesdays, at 4:15 P. M., and Saturdays at H. A. M. They will be conducted on the same plan as last winter, and calisthenics and gymnastics will chiefly be taught. Besides, a number of games will be introduced.

The ladles' classes, to which quite a number of applications have already been received, will be held on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays from 10:30 A. M. to 12:30 P. M. They will comprise a greater variety of instructions than last year, and special attention will be paid to calls days, and in vocal music on Thursdays.

An entirely new departure will be the educational work as it has been mapped out for the junior department. Mr. E. N. Newman has been selected as principal for this department, and it will be open for boys of the ages of from twelve to sixten years, who have to work during the day and desire to improve their education in the evenings. Two beautiful rooms on the third floor of the building have been set aside for this purpose. They have been handsomely fitted an especially for this work.

The following branches of studies will be taught there: Geographical and historical reading Tuendays and Thursdays at 9 P. M., Mr. P. A. Arthur teacher, grammer Tuesdays and Thursdays at 8 P. M., Mr. Ewart M. Woodward teacher, arithmetic Mondays and Wednesdays at 8 P. M., Mr. Temple J. English teacher; penmanship Mondays and Wednesdays at 9 P. M., Mr. Harry G. Whittel, teacher.

These studies cover the first four tights in the week, while Friday hight will be devoted to literary work, such as debating, declaiming, and reading.

One of the rooms will be reserved as a reading and game room, where the boys will be furnished with suitable periodicals and a library. Parents are requested to call at the association building and investigate for themselves the arrangements that have been made for this department. The number of members will of course be limited according to the size of the rooms, and a number of applications have already been received. A NEW DEPARTURE.

The literary society of the association, which has been in existence for two years and is known under the name of Sionewall Club, No. 25, Lyceum League of America, had an informal opening of the season on Monday night. The session was presided over by Mr. B. Morgan Shepherd. There were a number of readings and declamations and a short debate was held on the subject, "Shell leafslation always wait for public opinion?" The subject was handled in an able manner by Messrs. Princeton Foot-Ball Nea at Practice. PRINCETON N. J., Sept. 25.—The Tigers had their first line-up to-day. There were so many candidates on the field that they were divided into two sections. The University men and first scrub practiced in a fifteen-minute game, and then two more elevens were brought out and tried their metal against each other for about twenty minutes. On the 'Varsity line were Trenchard, right ead, Lea, right tackle; Taylor, right guard, Crowdis, centrs; Wheeler, left guard, Church, left tackle, and Brown, left end. The backs were Poe, quarter; Morss and McCormick, halves, and Burt, full-back.

The most hopeful men on the first scrub were Riggs, who played a foxy game at centre, and Tyler at full-back. Holly was on the field watching the game to-day. There is a rumor that he may, after all, conclude to play this year. He weighs over 200 now. Spier, '91, and Mike Bergen, '92, coached the line men, and Lewis, '91, watched the backs.
